To Whom It May Concern:

I have been made aware that Indiana's telephone privacy is being threatened by big business, once again (re docket number 02-278 in Indiana legislation). My wife and I have gone to lengths to retain privacy of our phone lines... unlisted home number and putting it and our cell phone numbers into the "Do Not Call" databases. We feel that commercial enterprises in the USA are already too pervasive and invasive. We do not wish for legislation that would weaken our already tentative grasp on privacy (and sanity). If I wish to communicate with a commercial enterprise of any sort, I much prefer to call them. In fact, when they invade my privacy or bombard me with communications, I put them on my "Do Not Do Business With" list. I will end on that note as I'm hoping this is enough explanation of my sentiments. I would be happy to elaborate on any of this, if you wish, though. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best Regards,
